

Dr Cosmo F. Scurr MBBS BSc(Hons) MRCEM FRCA FIMC

Consultant in Anaesthesia & Major Trauma | Consultant in Pre-Hospital Emergency Medicine

Imperial Healthcare NHS Trust | Barts Health NHS Trust / London's Air Ambulance

Experienced and dynamic dual-trained Consultant in Anaesthesia and Pre-hospital Emergency Medicine (PHEM), with a specialist focus on major trauma. Current roles include Anaesthesia Lead for Major Trauma at Imperial NHS Trust and Consultant at London's Air Ambulance. Proven expertise in clinical leadership, service innovation, education, and trauma governance.

Qualifications

- FIMC – Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh (2017)
 - FRCA – Royal College of Anaesthetists (2015)
 - MRCEM – Royal College of Emergency Medicine (2013)
 - BSc (Hons) Health Sciences with Management – Imperial College Business School (2007)
-

Clinical Roles

- Consultant Anaesthetist, St Mary's Hospital (2021–Present)
 - Anaesthesia Lead for Major Trauma; Trauma Team Leader
 - Consultant in PHEM, London's Air Ambulance (2022–Present)
 - Service development, digital systems, clinical supervision
-

Leadership & Management

- Clinical Lead for digital records & Airbox systems at LAA
 - Trauma Governance Board member, MTC peer review contributor
 - Anaesthesia lead for major trauma at Imperial Healthcare NHS Trust
-

Education & Training

- Module Lead: MSc in Prehospital Medicine (QMUL) – Toxicology
- Consultant Training Lead – London's Air Ambulance
- Examiner: Royal College of Surgeons (FIMC)